RESORT TO ANYTHING TO REPORT EVERYTHING!

This just in! You are a budding reporter for Channel WON News and are so close to catching that big break! The network has decided to bring a fresh face to their news anchor desk and you are one of the final candidates. The station head, Myra Porters, has decided to put the best to the test in a one-day, all-out showdown to see who can land the job of prime time news anchor! Your goal is to travel the city, gather sources, and help report the best news stories of the day.

The objective of this game is to earn the most points after 3 rounds (morning, evening, and nightly news) by reporting stories and keeping the network ratings above zero.

- Easy to learn
- Unique semi-cooperate play
- Individual character powers
- Beautiful retro art style
- Hysterical puns and humor
- Family-friendly, but still strategic
